Notices to Participants & Attendees

1. SPORTSMANSHIP RULE – The AJCA Round-Up is intended to foster a positive family-friendly atmosphere. All participants and attendees are expected to behave in a respectable manner during all events held during the 2010 AJCA Round-Up. Any disruptive behavior or language during an event by a participant or other attendee will void eligibility for participation in the 2011 AJCA Round-Up for the violator and his/her family or the family he/she is associated with.

2. CAMPER/RV PARKING – Those wanting to park an RV on the hill for the weekend are welcome. Water and sewage hook-ups are available. Please see the staff in the Garrett Coliseum office to pay a $15/day fee for using those services.

4. AJCA Round-Up SURVEYS – Please take the time to fill out a survey while you're at the AJCA Round-Up. Changes made to the schedule and rules each year are a result of constructive criticisms and ideas offered through surveys filled out by attendees.

5. The MOOseum – The MOOseum, located on the first floor of the ACA Building in downtown Montgomery, will be open on Saturday July 24th from noon to 2 p.m. If you've never visited, please check it out. Maps to The MOOseum from the Coliseum will be available.

6. FUNDING SOURCES – The AJCA Round-Up is made possible largely through funding from the Alabama Cattlemen's Foundation and the Alabama State 50 Cent Checkoff. Last year, donations from sponsors such as the Alabama Farmers Cooperative raised more than $10,000. All sponsors will be listed and visible during the 2010 AJCA Round-Up; please thank these donors for their commitment to the youth of Alabama's beef industry.

7. SHOWMEN MUST REGISTER FOR SHOWMANSHIP – Please be aware that you must preregister for all contests, including showmanship. Just because you've entered animals in the cattle show does not mean you're automatically entered into any contests. You will not be able to sign up for showmanship on-site if you did not preregister. Registration deadline is July 2, 2010.

8. NEW FOR 2010 - Steers will show in breed categories. Division I = Maine-Anjou & Chianina. Division II = Simmental, Charolais, Limousin. Division III = Angus, Hereford, Shorthorn. Division IV = All Other Breeds, Division V = Crossbred. Exhibitors will have the opportunity to declare the breed of their steers before the weighing/classifying committee at check-in. With a consensus vote of the committee, steers will be thus classified into breeds. Breed ID should match the hair/hide/color pattern of the declared breed as well as the body type of the declared breed. Decisions of the weighing/classifying committee will be final.

9. NEW FOR 2010 - All participants in the cattle show have their cattle stalled in the livestock barns by county. For the first time in 2010, one county will be awarded the Annual AJCA Round-Up Golden Pitchfork Award for maintaining a neat, clean, and attractive environment in and around their county's stall area during the course of the entire AJCA Round-Up. The ceremonial Golden Pitchfork Trophy will be accompanied by a $250 cash prize for that county's junior cattleman chapter as well as the opportunity to pick where in the barns the winning county will be stalled at next year's AJCA Round-Up.

Below are age guidelines that will be followed for all contests at the 2010 AJCA Round-Up

2010 AJCA Round-Up Cattle Judging Contest

Objective:

The objective of the AJCA Round-Up Cattle Judging Contest is to allow youth the ability to develop and exercise their skills in evaluating beef cattle. To further the educational benefits of the event, official placing will be discussed by the contest officials at the conclusion of the event. Contestants must be Alabama residents.

Rules:

1. The AJCA Round-Up Cattle Judging Contest will be an individual competition. No cooperation or teamwork will be allowed. Contestants may be removed from the contest by officials if cooperation is suspected.
2. Contestants in the AJCA Round-Up Cattle Judging Contest will compete as either Juniors age 9-12, Intermediates age 13-15, or Seniors age 16-21.
3. All cattle classes in the AJCA Round-Up Cattle Judging Contest will consist of haltered cattle.
4. Contestants will have 10 minutes to judge each class and turn in their placing card to contest officials. An official timekeeper will signal when cattle are to be moved and alert contestants that time has expired for evaluating a given class.
5. Contestants in the AJCA Round-Up Cattle Judging Contest will not be asked to present oral reasons.
6. The AJCA Round-Up Cattle Judging Contest will include two placing classes in which contestants will be asked to rank a class of 4 animals based on visual appraisal.
7. The AJCA Round-Up Cattle Judging Contest will include two questions classes in which contestants will be given time to evaluate a class of cattle and then answer 10 questions on that class.
8. The AJCA Round-Up Cattle Judging Contest will entail one "guess the weight" class of two animals.
10. Top five placing individuals will be recognized from each of the three age divisions.

All entry forms are due in the ACA office by July 2, 2010

2010 AJCA Round-Up Team Grooming Contest

Objective:

The objective of the AJCA Round-Up Team Grooming Contest is to allow youth the opportunity to demonstrate their proficiency in grooming a beef animal for show. As a team event, participants will also be required to demonstrate excellent teamwork skills. Contestants must be Alabama residents.

Rules:

1. Each team will be comprised of three contestants; one from each of the three age categories: Juniors age 9-12, Intermediates age 13-15, and Seniors age 16-21.
2. An "open" division will be available for teams made up of 3 youth age 9-21 regardless of individual ages.
3. Each team will bring one clean and dry steer or heifer to compete in the grooming contest.
4. Each team is limited to one grooming chute and one blower.
5. All equipment must be at the team's work station at the inception of the contest. At no time during the contest will contestants be able to leave the work station to retrieve equipment and no equipment or supplies may be brought to the contestants after the contest has commenced.
6. This will be a timed contest. When instructed by contest officials to begin working, teams will have 45 minutes to prepare their animal for judging.
7. When the 45 minute preparation period is over, all teams must take their animal out of the grooming chute and cease all grooming functions. The animals will then be paraded before the judges.
8. Participants are encouraged to bring a generator and 75+ feet of extension cord. There should be extra generators in place outside the contest area for use by those youngsters who are not able to secure their own generator; however, use of those generators will be limited.
9. Safety being a priority, contest officials have the obligation to remove a team from the contest if the safety of the animal or the participants is a concern
10. Top five placing teams will be recognized from the traditional team division as well as the open team division.

Judging Criteria:

1. Teamwork (how well the team members work together)
2. Participation (how well all team members contribute to the process)
3. Time Management (how efficiently time is spent on each task)
4. Cleanliness (appearance of contestants and their work area)
5. Subject Knowledge (judges may ask contestants questions during the contest)
6. Final Product (appearance of animal after the grooming process)
7. Showmanship (ability to present the animal after the grooming process)

All entry forms are due in the ACA office by July 2, 2010

2010 AJCA Round-Up Volleyball Tournament

Objective:

The objective of the AJCA Round-Up Volleyball Tournament is to give youth and their families a chance to relax and have fun together following a hamburger cook-out hosted by the Alabama Cattlemen's Association and its county chapters.

Rules:

1. Each team will be comprised of four contestants; one from each of the three age categories: Juniors age 9-12, Intermediates age 13-15, and Seniors age 16-21, as well as one adult over age 21.
2. Teams will be divided into brackets and will play in a single-elimination tournament until only one team remains undefeated.
3. The event will be held inside the Teague Arena on a wood shavings floor. Contestants should dress and prepare accordingly.
4. Ample seating will be available for spectators in the Teague bleachers.

REMINDER - SPORTSMANSHIP RULE – The AJCA Round-Up is intended to foster a positive family-friendly atmosphere. All participants and attendees are expected to behave in a respectable manner during all events held during the 2010 AJCA Round-Up. Any disruptive behavior or language during an event by a participant or other attendee will void eligibility for participation in the 2011 AJCA Round-Up for the violator and his/her family or the family he/she is associated with.

2010 AJCA Round-Up Team Salesmanship Contest

Objective:

The objective of the AJCA Round-Up Team Salesmanship Contest will be for a team of three contestants to present a persuasive presentation to a panel of three judges outlining the positive attributes of the team's animal, in effect, a mock sales presentation. This contest will require proficiency in public speaking as well as comprehensive knowledge of the animal being presented. Contestants must be Alabama residents.

Rules:

1. Each team will be comprised of three contestants; one from each of the three age categories: Juniors age 9-12, Intermediates age 13-15, and Seniors age 16-21.
2. Each team will bring one steer or heifer to stand with them as their subject animal.
3. Cattle are not to be groomed when presented during the AJCA Round-Up Team Salesmanship Contest. Cattle should be presented clean and dry.
4. Team members must take turns handling the animal during the contest.
5. Each team member must have a speaking role during the contest.
6. This is a timed event. Teams will have no more than 10 minutes to present their animal before the panel of judges.
7. The top five placing teams will be recognized.

Judging Criteria:

Teams entered in the AJCA Team Salesmanship Contest will be judged on their performance in several areas. Some of the criteria the judges will evaluate include:

1. Teamwork (how well the team members work together)
2. Participation (how well all team members contribute to the process)
3. Time Management (how efficiently time is spent)
4. Visual Appearance (appearance of contestants and the subject animal)
5. Subject Knowledge (judges may ask contestants questions during the contest)
6. Showmanship (ability to present the animal during the contest)

All entry forms are due in the ACA office by July 2, 2010

2010 AJCA Round-Up Build a Better Burger Contest

Objective:

The objective of the AJCA Round-Up Build a Better Burger Contest will be for a team of three contestants to grill and prepare a hamburger for a panel of judges. Teams will be judged on the appearance of their workstation, their adherence to food safety, and the final appeal of their burgers. Contestants must be Alabama residents.

Rules:

1. Each team will be comprised of three contestants; one from each of the three age categories: Juniors age 9-12, Intermediates age 13-15, and Seniors age 16-21.
2. Each team will be given 5 fresh burger patties to use for the competition as well as a container to deliver their burgers to the judges. All other materials including buns, condiments, dressings, plates, grills, utensils, etc will be the responsibility of each team.
3. Each team will be given a table and an allotted space to set up their work area.
4. Each team will present 3 identical burgers to a panel of judges.
5. Contest officials will test each burger that leaves the grill for dressing to assure that it has an internal temperature of at least 160 degrees.
6. Only gas grills and electric grills will be allowed – NO charcoal grills will be allowed. Participants are STRONGLY ENCOURAGED to bring a generator and 75+ feet of extension cord if their team plans to use an electric griddle. There should be extra generators in place outside the contest area for use by those youngsters who are not able to secure their own generator; however, use of those generators will be limited.
7. This is a timed event. Teams will have 45 minutes from the time they're given their raw patties until they are required to submit their entries for judging.
8. NEW FOR 2010 - Teams will be assigned staggered start times in an effort to give each team an opportunity to present the judges with a "hot off the grill" burger. This means separate panels of judges will be evaluating the teams at their workstations and also at the judges' tasting table.

Judging Criteria:

Teams entered in the AJCA Round-Up Build a Better Burger Contest will be judged on their performance in several areas. Some of the criteria the judges will evaluate include:

1. Teamwork (how well the team members work together)
2. Creativity (ingredients used in the preparation process)
3. Time Management (how efficiently time is spent)
4. Visual Appearance (appearance of contestants and their work area)
5. Subject Knowledge (judges may ask questions during the contest)
6. Final Product (appearance and taste of the hamburger)

All entry forms are due to the ACA office by July 2, 2010

2010 AJCA Round-Up Showmanship Contest

Rules:

1. There will be a $10 entry fee for all contestants in the AJCA Round-Up Showmanship Contest. Exhibitors must sign up and pay the appropriate entry fee to compete in showmanship. Entering animals in the cattle show does not automatically enter you in showmanship. Exhibitors can sign up for showmanship on the CONTEST ENTRY FORM which must be in the ACA office by July 2, 2010.
2. Exhibitors must be Alabama residents
3. Cattle used in the AJCA Round-Up Showmanship Contest must also be entered in the AJCA Round-Up Cattle Show. Exhibitors may only use animals they entered in the AJCA Round-Up Cattle Show in the AJCA Round-Up Showmanship Contest.
4. Showmanship classes will be split as evenly as possible from each of the three age categories: Juniors age 9-12, Intermediates age 13-15, and Seniors age 16-21. A champion Junior, Intermediate, and Senior showman will be named as well as a Supreme Champion Showman.
5. All contestants in each class will be placed and receive a ribbon.
6. A special non-ownership class will be included at the start of the showmanship contest for youth ages 9-21 who do not have an animal at the show but are able to borrow an animal from another youth. This class is intended for youth who are not experienced showmen. Pre-registration for this class is not required.
7. No cow-calf pairs will be allowed in the AJCA Round-Up Showmanship Contest. In the event that a heifer does have a calf at her side, the calf may not enter the ring during showmanship.

All entry forms are due in the ACA office by July 2, 2010

2010 AJCA Round-Up Cattle Show

Rules:

1. There will be a $10 per head entry fee for all animals entered during the 2010 AJCA Round-Up Cattle Show. Payment must accompany entries turned in to the ACA office.
2. The deadline for entries and entry fees for the 2010 AJCA Round-Up Cattle Show must be in to the ACA office by July 2, 2010.
3. Late entries (those received between July 3rd and July 16th) for the cattle show will be accepted with an accompanying entry fee of $100 per head. NO ENTRIES WILL BE ACCEPTED AFTER JULY 16TH.
4. Entries received to the ACA office after the entry deadline or without the appropriate entry fee will not be entered into the AJCA Round-Up.
5. Entries in the 2010 AJCA Round-Up will NOT be automatically entered in any other shows.
6. Certificates of veterinary inspection are not required for animals that do not cross state lines.
7. Only one fan will be allowed per two animals. Fans can be a maximum of 36 inches in diameter and must have approved safety covers. No butt fans; fans must blow parallel to the tie wall.
8. Only steers and heifers will be eligible for the 2010 AJCA Round-Up; no bulls or cow-calf pairs.
9. Five animals of the represented breed must be entered to constitute a breed show in the heifer show. Those that do not have at least 5 head will show as All Other Breeds.
10. Prospect market steers, prospect market heifers, and commercial heifers will show by ACTUAL weight which will be determined by a committee of show officials operating the scales.
11. Prospect market steers and prospect market heifers must be less than one year old on the day of the show.
12. Heifers are not allowed to show as breeding heifers and prospect market heifers. Entry forms allow exhibitors to choose the one category in which they will exhibit their heifers.
13. Steers will show in one of 5 breed divisions. A committee of show officials will determine a steer's appropriate breed category during weigh-in.
14. Class winners in each breed division of the prospect market steer show will be brought into the ring to determine top 5 steers for that breed division.
15. Class winners in the prospect market heifer show will be brought in to determine top 5 prospect market heifers.
16. The top 5 steers from each breed division and the top 5 prospect market heifers will then be brought back again to determine a Top 5 of the entire prospect market show, first being Supreme Champion Market Animal.
17. Heifer classes will consist of heifers born on or after August 1, 2008.
18. Champion and Reserve Champion from each breed in the breeding heifer show will reenter the ring at the conclusion of the heifer show to determine a Top 5 of the entire heifer show, first being Supreme Champion Breeding Animal.
19. Cattle not entered in the 2010 AJCA Round-Up Cattle Show will not be allowed in the barns.
